

he is supervisor, and the justice to whom such report is made shall issue his warrant in the name of the State for such supervisor so reported, to be directed to some constable of the district, directing him to bring such supervisor before him for trial; and if, upon trial, it shall appear that such public roads over which he is supervisor are in a bad or dangerous condition, owing to his neglect of any of the duties prescribed in these preceding sections, and such neglect was not caused by sickness of himself or family, then the justice of the peace shall fine the supervisor not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars and costs; provided that in all cases when fines may be imposed under this section, any person feeling himself aggrieved may appeal to the Circuit Court, as in other cases, provided he shall within ten days enter into bond with security, for fifty dollars, to prosecute his appeal with effect.

Right of appeal.

Sec. 166. Until the next general election, the County Commissioners of said county shall divide the duties herein imposed among them, and after such election each of the five commissioners elected shall be and act as general road supervisors of the commissioner district from which he has been elected, or to which he shall be assigned by his co-commissioners, and shall have special supervision of the acts, duties, and accounts of the road supervisors appointed in his said district by the County Commissioners, as is now or hereafter may be provided by law. It shall be his duty to inspect the roads in his said commissioner district and report the condition thereof to the Board of County Commissioners for their action in the premises. No road bill from his district shall be passed by the County Commissioners until he shall have examined and reported on the same. It shall be his duty to notify the several road supervisors of his said district of such needed work upon their respective roads as comes to his knowledge, and to report for the action of the Grand Jury any gross neglect of said road supervisors, and such obstructions to public travel, and road nuisances, as comes to his notice; and for every day that he may be actually engaged in the inspection of the roads of his district he shall be entitled to charge the same on his account as County Commissioners; always provided, that his entire compensation as County

Who are road supervisors.

Inspect roads in commissioner district