

shall give notice of the time and place fixed for hearing such appeals by advertisement in one or more newspapers of said city, and upon such appeals said City Council, or its committee, may examine the party appealing under oath, and shall reassess the property of such appellant as they may deem just; but no appeal shall be heard, except during the time so fixed by such ordinance, which time shall be in the month of June in each year, and said City Council shall make no changes in the assessments at any other time.

Removal. 38. The Mayor shall, on conviction in any court of law of wilful neglect of duty, or misbehavior in office, be removed from office by the Governor of the State, and a successor shall be elected as in case of a vacancy.

Duties of Mayor. 39 The Mayor shall, by virtue of his office, see that the ordinances of the city are duly and faithfully executed; he shall, by and with the advice and consent of the City Council, appoint all officers of said city who are not elective by the Council under this act; he shall annually, on the first Monday in May, report to the Council in writing the general state of the city, with an accurate account of the monies received and expended, which report shall be published once in each of the newspapers of said city, giving a full and particular statement of all receipts and disbursements; he shall have power to remove any of the officers, agents or servants by him appointed for neglect or violation of any duties pertaining to their respective offices, and shall appoint others in their stead, and shall report such removal and appointments to the City Council, at its next regular meeting, for its approval or disapproval; he shall have general supervision of the city, and shall submit from time to time to the Council such recommendations as he shall deem proper; he shall also, by virtue of his office, be chairman of the trustees of the sinking fund and of the board of health, and shall discharge all the duties pertaining to such chairmanships; and he shall receive for his services an annual salary of five hundred dollars.

General supervision.

Power to pass ordinances. 40. The City Council shall have power to pass all such ordinances not contrary to the constitution and