

Council with his approval or disapproval within six days after the passage thereof by said Council, then such ordinance, resolution or order shall be taken and considered as approved by him, and shall be as valid and binding as if actually so approved; and the passage of all ordinances and of all resolutions or orders for the appropriation of money shall be by yeas and nays, entered on the journal of said City Council, and the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members elected to said body shall be necessary to pass any ordinance or any resolution or order for the appropriation of money.

Yeas and nays.

42. Said City Council may provide by ordinance for the codification of all ordinances which have been or may hereafter be passed by it, and for the printing of such codification thereof, and the printed copy thereof issued by authority and under the sanction of said body, shall be legal evidence of the passage of said ordinances and the contents thereof in any court of law or equity in this State.

Codify ordinances.

43. The Mayor and City Council shall have power to provide for the laying out, opening or extending of any street or alley within the city, which in their opinion the public welfare or convenience may require; to provide for ascertaining whether any and what amount in value of damage will be caused thereby, for which the owner or possessor of any property through which said street or alley-way may pass ought to be compensated, by the appointment of commissioners to assess the same; to provide for assessing and levying, either generally on the whole assessable property within the city, or specially on the property of persons benefited, the whole or any part of the damages and expenses which will be incurred in laying out or extending such street or alley, and grading the same; to provide for collecting and paying the compensation awarded to any person before any street shall be opened or extended, and to enact all ordinances from time to time necessary or proper to the exercise of the powers granted in this section; provided that before they shall proceed to execute any of the powers vested in them by this section, at least thirty days' notice shall be given of any application which may be made for the passage of any such ordinance by advertisement in Laying out streets, &c.

Give thirty days' notice.