

tion under this charter, but shall not be conclusive evidence of such right to vote; said City Council shall annually, on or before the second Monday in April in each year, elect a person to act in conjunction with the city clerk, as officers of registration, and such person shall be of different politics from said city clerk, and the two shall sit as officers of registration at the council chamber at least five days, commencing on the second Monday in May each year, and nine hours each day, and twenty days' public notice of such sitting shall be given by advertisement in each of the newspapers of said city.

49. Whenever the Mayor and City Council shall levy any tax they shall cause to be made out an alphabetical list of the persons chargeable therewith, and affix the respective sums to be collected from each person, and shall specify the levied for general purposes and the amount levied for interest, and the amount levied for the sinking, provided for the redemption of the bonds and funded debt of the city as separate items, in accordance with the ordinances of said city now existing and issued, or to be issued in pursuance of any act of the legislature, and annex to the said list a warrant to the collector to collect the same; and the said collector shall, within thirty days after the receipt of such warrant and list, render to each person named therein an account of his, her or their tax, and may, unless the same be paid within thirty days after the delivery of such account, collect the same by distress and the sale of goods and chattels of the delinquent; and said collector shall account for the amount of such assessment with the Mayor and City Council, and shall make monthly returns and payments in the manner directed by said Council of all taxes collected by him, under penalty of double the amount thereof.

How collected.

Furnish account.

50. All taxes levied by said Mayor and City Council for the general purposes of said corporation, or for the payment of interest, or for the sinking fund provided for the redemption of the bonds and funded indebtedness of the city, now issued or hereafter to be issued in pursuance of any act of the Legislature, shall be a lien on the property of the party or parties against whom said tax may be charged, whether such person be a resident or non-resident of the city,

Taxes for general purposes.