

finance committee of said City Council in making up the annual levy; and immediately thereafter the clerk shall advertise for one week in the daily papers of the city for bids to furnish said supplies and tools, or to make such repairs, said bids to be opened by the clerk in the presence of the City Council, and the award shall be made of such contracts to the lowest responsible bidders therefor; provided that such lowest bid shall be considered reasonable by said City Council.

56j. After the first day of August, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, no draft shall be drawn upon the treasurer of said city unless there shall be in the treasury at the time of drawing the same a sufficient sum of money to pay such draft. Shall not draw draft.

56k. Every officer of said city shall in the course of his official business receive monies belonging to said city, shall pay the same over to the treasurer, and to no other person; and no officer of said city, except the treasurer, shall pay any drafts or obligations of said city. Pay over to treasurer.

56l. No street shall be graded, nor shall any grade be established for any street, nor shall any grade be changed or altered upon any street, or part of a street, in said city, nor shall any repairs be made upon any street, or part of a street, therein effecting the existing grade thereof, except under the supervision of the city engineer, and upon plans made by him, which plans, however, the City Council may change or modify if objected to by any party in interest. Engineer to furnish plans.

56m. The Mayor and each member of the City Council shall, during the whole term for which they are elected, be possessed of all the qualifications rendering them eligible to be elected, and if any one of them during the term for which he was elected shall fail to retain all the qualifications necessary to render him eligible to election, he shall forfeit such office, and a new election to fill the vacancy caused thereby shall be immediately ordered by the City Council, and if the said Council shall neglect or refuse to order the same, then any tax-paying citizen of said city, being a legal voter therein, may file a petition in the Circuit