

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners and their surveyor, if one not of their body be appointed, shall each be entitled to five dollars per day for each day they may serve as such, and all other persons employed by said commissioners to aid them in making said survey, and in such other duties as may be required by this act, except their counsel, if any be employed by them, whose compensation shall as aforesaid be fixed by said Circuit Court, shall be entitled to one dollar and twenty-five cents per day each, to be certified by the said commissioners or a majority of them, and be paid as hereinafter provided.

Compensation for commissioners and surveyor.

Counsel.

Other persons.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the expenses of the said Commission and Survey, the expenses of recording the proceedings, and all other expenses incident to the commission, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, shall be assessed, levied and paid by the County Commissioners of the said county, as other county charges are levied and paid; and one-half of all fines imposed and collected under the provisions of this act, for the violation of the second offence, specified in the sixth section of this act, shall be paid into the Public School Fund of said county, and one-half to the informer.

County Commissioners to pay expenses.

One-half of fines.

Informer's portion.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the Harbor Master, hereinafter provided for, shall have full power and authority, and it shall be his duty to regulate said Inner Harbor, and the steamers, vessels, and craft of all kinds entering therein, and to prevent the same from moving or anchoring so as to obstruct navigation or interfere with the movements of one another, and to cause their removal from one point to another for that purpose, and upon the owner, captain or other person in charge neglecting or refusing to obey the authority of said harbor master, and persisting in anchoring or moving his steamer, vessel, or other craft at any point forbidden by him, or neglect or refuse to remove the same when by said officer called on to do so, and upon the announcement of his official position, except steamers, vessels, or other craft lying at wharf discharging cargo, or lying at wharf in employment, or by consent of owner

Harbor Master have full power.

Refusing to obey the authority.