Said bill was then sent to the House of Delegates.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates appeared and delivered the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
March 29th, 1892.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

The House of Delegates having refused to concur in the amendment exempting Kent county from the provisions of House bill for the destruction of fruit trees infected with the Yellows.

We respectfully request your Honorable Body to recede from said amendment, and herewith return said bill.

By order,
CARLTON SHAFER,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read.

Mr. Hepbron submitted the following message:

BY THE SENATE,
March 30th, 1892.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We have received your message notifying us that your Honorable Body has refused to concur in the Senate amendment to House printed bill No. 8, providing for the destruction of fruit trees infected with the Yellows, and asking the Senate to recede from its amendment, the Senate adheres to its amendment and respectfully propose a Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on said bill.
