

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
 March 31st, 1892.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received your message requesting the return to your Honorable Body for further consideration of House bill No. 324, introduced by Mr. Smith, of Dorchester. We herewith return said bill.

By order,

CARLON SHAFER,
 Chief Clerk.

Which was read.

On motion by Mr. Austin,

The vote by which said bill passed was reconsidered and said bill recommitted.

Mr. Austin, from the select Committee, reported said bill favorably, with the following proposed amendments:

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Strike out all after "A bill," and insert the following:

"Entitled an Act to divide the Fourth, or Parson's Creek Election District of Dorchester county, into two election precincts.

"Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Fourth, or Parson's Creek Election District of Dorchester county, be and is hereby divided into two election precincts, to be called Precinct No. 1, or Madison Precinct, and Precinct No. 2, or Taylor's Ireland Precinct; all that part of said Fourth, or Parson's Creek District, lying eastward of a line beginning with the headwaters of Parson's Creek and running with Stewart's Canal to its intersection with the headwaters of Blackwater river, and with said river to the Big Water Bridge, shall constitute the First, or Madison Precinct, and the voting place shall be Madison; and all that part of said Fourth, or Parson's Creek District, lying to the westward of said line, shall constitute the Second, or Taylor's Island Precinct, and the voting place shall be at Taylor's Island.

"Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of Dorchester county are hereby authorized
