

"95 D. Whenever the County Commissioners, after having determined that the public convenience requires the opening, altering or closing of a public road, and after having determined upon the location which, in their opinion will best promote the public convenience, shall fail for any cause to contract with the owner or owners of the lands necessary for such road, or if such owner or owners is or are non compos mentis or under age, they shall appoint three persons as examiners, who shall be freeholders in the county, and not interested in or holding lands through which the road is proposed to be opened or altered, to appraise the damages which the owner or owners of the lands required for said road will sustain by the opening, altering or closing of the same; but the appointment of examiners shall not prevent the said County Commissioners at any time thereafter from contracting with the owner as before provided.

"95 E. The said examiners, before they proceed to act as such, shall take an oath to execute the trust reposed in them by the commission to them issued, faithfully and without favor, affection or partiality; which oath shall be endorsed on the commission and returned therewith; and after taking such oath, they or a majority of them, after giving thirty days notice to the owner or owners of the lands through which such proposed road is to run, in the manner prescribed in section eighty four, of Article 25, of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, shall meet on the premises and proceed to value and appraise the damages which the owner or owners of such lands will sustain by the opening, altering or closing of such road, and shall make a full report thereof to the said County Commissioners.

"95 F. The foregoing sections 95 A, 95 B, 95 C, 95 D, 95 E, shall be substituted for and in lieu of sections 86, 87, 88, 89 and 90, of Article 25, of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, in so far as said last named sections apply to Frederick county, but all other sections of said Article 25 shall be and remain in full force and effect in Frederick county.

"95 G. Any person feeling himself aggrieved by any order or determination of the County Commis-