

Mr. Hayes, from the Committee on Finance, reported favorably,

Ordered by the Senate, That the balance of the salary for this session of the Senate, which would have been due the late Senator Talbott, if he had lived, be paid to his widow, Mrs. E. T. Talbott.

Which was adopted.

And, favorably,

Ordered, That the President and Secretary of the Senate and the members of the Engrossing Committee receive severally, for their services, in enrolling and signing bills in the recess of the General Assembly, the same compensation as was allowed for the same services at the last session of the General Assembly, and that the Chairman of the Committee designate the clerks to be employed, and that such clerks shall receive the same compensation as allowed hereby to members of the Committee.

Which was adopted.

And, favorably,

Ordered, That the Chairman of the Committee on Claims pay to William Daniels, for services rendered the Senate during the present session, for cleaning and keeping in order the Finance and other committee rooms of the Senate, and for performing other duties, a per diem of — dollars to date, from the beginning of the session.

With the following proposed amendment:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Strike out the words, "a per diem of — dollars to date from the beginning of the session," and insert in lieu thereof the following words, "$100."

Which was read.

Mr. Getty submitted the following amendment to the amendment:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Strike out "$100" in the order, and insert "$250."

Which was adopted.

Said order, as amended, was then adopted.
