

Mr. Robinson presented the memorial of citizens and journalists, praying relief of the sureties of Stevenson Archer.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also by Mr. Robinson, the memorial of citizens and editors of newspapers of Maryland, praying relief of the sureties of Stevenson Archer.

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Gorter presented the memorial from seventy-one citizens of Baltimore city, asking the establishment of a State Weather Service, and an appropriation of two thousand dollars.

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

ORDERS.

Mr. Hayes submitted the following:

Whereas, by the terms and provisions of the Act of 1890, chapter 571, the Committees on Finance of the Senate, and Ways and Means of the House of Delegates, within the first month of the Session of the General Assembly are required jointly to visit the repository of the State securities in Baltimore city and to examine and count the same, and to burn the securities, bonds or certificates of the overdue debt of the State, and to perform certain other duties named in said Act; therefore, be it ordered by the Senate, that the expenses attending said committees, visit to Baltimore, in the performance of the aforesaid duties, be defrayed and paid by the State, and that the Chairman of the Committee of Claims be, and he is hereby ordered to draw his warrant upon the Comptroller for the amount actually expended on said visit by said committees in the performance of the aforesaid duties, on vouchers countersigned as correct by the chairman of said committees.

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

On motion by Mr. Moss, it was Ordered, That Senators Bennett, Coffin, Posey and