

report of the condition and of the operations of the Treasury Department, for the fiscal year ended September 30th, 1891.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

L. VICTOR BAUGHMAN,
Comptroller.

[SEE DOCUMENT B.]

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

ORDERS.

On motion by Mr. Hayes, it was Ordered by the Senate that a Committee of three (3) Senators be appointed to ascertain if it is possible and advisable to restore, as to its interior arrangement and construction, this Senate Chamber to the same condition it was in on the 23rd December, 1783, when General Washington resigned and surrendered his commission to the Congress of the United States, which was then in session in this Chamber.

And, if said Committee should find that such restoration is possible and advisable, then to ascertain the probable cost of the same and report the result of their investigation in writing at an early date to the Senate,

The President appointed as such Committee, Messrs. Hayes, Wirt and Rogers.

On motion by Mr. Posey, it was Ordered, That Senator Wilkinson be excused from attendance on to-day's session.

On motion by Mr. Getty, it was Ordered, That the State Librarian be authorized and instructed to furnish each Standing Committee of the Senate with a copy of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, Vols. 1 and 2, if desired by said committees, respectively, for use during the present session of the Legislature.

On motion by Mr. Posey, it was Ordered, That Senator Coffin be excused from attendance upon to-day's session of the Senate.
