

Senate bill entitled an Act to appropriate a sum of money to pay R. C. Mackall, for expenses incurred under an appointment made by his Excellency, Elihu E. Jackson, late Governor of Maryland, as a delegate to the Southern Emigration Convention, held at Asheville, North Carolina, in December, 1890.

Senate bill entitled an Act to provide for the further publication of the Archives of Maryland.

Which were read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Senate bill entitled an Act to establish an Asylum for the Insane of the State of Maryland.

With the following proposed amendments :

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

In section "4," line "2," strike out all after the word "necessary" to the word "title," inclusive, in line 3 of the same section.

Strike out all of section 6 and insert the following :

Section 6. Be it enacted, That the Judges of the Circuit Court for Baltimore city and the Judges of the Circuit Courts for the several counties of this State, may commit to the said asylum, as soon as completed and ready for occupancy, such insane persons as are or have been found, upon inquisition of a jury, to be insane, at an annual cost to said city or county, of one hundred dollars for each patient so committed, the said sum of one hundred dollars to be paid to the Board of Managers of said asylum, by the city of Baltimore or the county sending such patients ; provided, that the number of insane patients so committed as aforesaid, shall not exceed the number to which said city or counties are entitled, as based upon the last preceding United States Census.

In section "7," line "2," strike out "twenty-five," and insert "fifteen."

In section "5," line "2," after the word "land," insert "on the Eastern Shore of Maryland."

Which were adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was then read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

House bill entitled an Act to appropriate a sum of