

Add another section, to be designated as "section 14," and to come in after section 13, and to read as follows:

"Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage."

Which were adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Brown, from the Committee on Judicial Proceedings, reported favorably the following bills:

House bill entitled an Act to add an additional section to Article 93, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Orphans' Court," and to be called "Section 227 A."

Which was read the second time.

Senate bill entitled an Act for the identification of habitual criminals.

With the following proposed amendments:

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

By striking out all after the word "Act," and amend the titling by inserting in the place thereof the following:

"To amend Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws, title 'Crimes and Punishments,' sub-title 'Convicts,' adding thereto six sections, to come in after section 424, to be designated sections 424 A, 424 B, 424 C, 424 D, 424 E and 424 F, relating to the identification of habitual criminals."

Amend by inserting immediately after the titling the following:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that Article twenty seven, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Convicts," be amended by adding six additional sections thereto, to come in after section 424, and to be numbered respectively 424 A, 424 B, 424 C, 424 D, 424 E and 424 F, relating to the identification of habitual criminals, and to read respectively as follows.

Amend by striking out in the first line of the written bill the words "Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland," and inserting in lieu thereof the following, "424 A."
