

ORDER OF THE DAY.

The hour of 1 P. M. having arrived, the President announced the Order of the Day, to be the following:

BY THE SENATE,

February 24th, 1892.

Ordered by the Senate, that Friday next, at 1 P. M. be set apart by the Senate as the time when an opportunity will be given for the delivery of fitting tributes to the memory of Hon. J. Frank Talbott, deceased, late Senator from Calvert county.

And be it further ordered, as a further mark of respect to the memory of the Hon. J. Frank Talbott, deceased, that the Senate now adjourn.

Mr. Hayes submitted the following:

Resolved, That the announcement to the Senate of the death of the Honorable Joseph F. Talbott, late of Calvert county, has been received with profound sorrow and regret, and that the Senate is deeply sensible of the great loss it has sustained in the taking off of one of its most honored members.

Resolved, That in the death of the Honorable Joseph F. Talbott, the State has lost an honorable and upright citizen, and the people of Calvert county a most worthy representative.

Resolved, That during the few weeks he occupied his seat in this Body, he had gained the respect, regard and affection of his fellow Senators.

Resolved, That as a son most loving, as a husband most devoted and affectionate, as a father most kind and indulgent, as a friend sincere and unselfish, he has won the love and esteem of all those with whom he has come in contact.

Resolved, That the sympathy of this Senate is hereby extended to the family of the Hon. Joseph F. Talbott, in this the hour of their bereavement.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to transmit to the family of the deceased a copy of these resolutions.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the Journal of the Senate.

Which was read and adopted.

Mr. Hayes arose and addressed the Senate, as follows:
