Mr. Coffin presented the following:

To the Honorable,

the General Assembly of Maryland:

At a meeting of Forest Grange, No. 16, P. of H., the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That Forest Grange respectfully protests against the passage of a bill by your Honorable Body authorizing the County Commissioners of Prince George's county to purchase the property known as the Washington City and Marlboro Turnpike, believing said purchase an injustice to the taxpayers of other sections of the county.

Resolved, That a copy of said resolution be sent to our Delegates.

By order,

J. C. FAIRFAX, W. M.

Which was read, and referred to Messrs. Coffin, Rogers and Getty.
