

House bill entitled an Act to repeal chapter 121, of the Acts of 1890, entitled "An Act to authorize the County Commissioners of Prince George's County to Issue Bonds," &c., and to re-enact the same with amendments.

With the following proposed amendments:

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

In line eleven, insert after the word "county" and before the word "municipal," the word "and."

Strike out the words "and State," in line eleven.

In line 5, section 2, strike out "empowered and directed," and insert "and empowered."

In line 21, section 5, after the word "required" insert the words "not exceeding fifty-six thousand dollars."

In section 5, strike out all after the words "county paper" in line 22, and the word "levied" in line 23, and insert the words "that is to say, the excess of such paper, over and above the amount of taxes levied therefor but remaining uncollected."

In section 5, after the words "county thereafter" in line 29, strike out all of the remainder of section.

In section 7, line 5, next after the word "warrants," insert the words "relating to the affairs of said county."

In section 8, line 60, strike out "issued," and insert "as issued" for "issue."

Next after section 9, insert as a new section, 10.

"Section 10. And be it enacted, That any misapplication of the funds provided for by this Act by the said County Commissioners shall render them, and each and all of them participating in such misapplication or misuse, liable to indictment by the Grand Jury, and upon conviction they shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not less than one nor more than five years, and limitations shall be no bar to said indictment."

Which were adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was read the second time.
