

been previously agreed upon, for the purpose of convening in Joint Assembly with that Body for the election of United States Senators.

The Senators, accompanied by their Secretary, having been seated in the Hall of the House of Delegates,

The Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senators.

The Chief Clerk of the House of Delegates called the roll of the Members of the House of Delegates.

The Secretary of the Senate then proceeded to read from the Journal of the Senate, the proceedings and result of the election had in that Body for United States Senators on the previous day.

After which,

The Clerk of the House of Delegates read from the Journal of the House, the proceedings and result of election for United States Senators had in that Body upon the previous day.

Whereupon,

It appearing that the Hon. Arthur P. Gorman had received a majority of all the votes cast in each House for Senator in Congress,

The Speaker of the House of Delegates, as chairman of the Joint Convention, declared that the Hon. Arthur P. Gorman had been elected Senator from Maryland in the Congress of the United States for the period of six years, from and after the 4th day of March, 1893.

It also appeared that no person had received a majority of all the votes cast in both Houses for Senator in Congress, to fill the unexpired term of Hon. Ephraim K. Wilson, deceased.

The Speaker of the House of Delegates, as Chairman of the Joint Convention, declared that no person had been elected Senator from Maryland in the Congress of the United States to fill the unexpired term of Hon. Ephraim K. Wilson, deceased.

Whereupon,

The Joint Assembly proceeded to such election.

The Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senate.