

the ninth assessment district of said city; the tenth ward of said city as laid out shall constitute the tenth assessment district of said city; the eleventh ward of said city as laid out shall constitute the eleventh assessment district of said city; the twelfth ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the twelfth assessment district of said city; the thirteenth ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the thirteenth assessment district of said city; the fourteenth ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the fourteenth assessment district of said city; the fifteenth ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the fifteenth assessment district of said city; the sixteenth ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the sixteenth assessment district of said city; the seventeenth ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the seventeenth assessment district of said city; the eighteenth ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the eighteenth assessment district of said city; the nineteenth ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the nineteenth assessment district of said city; the twentieth ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the twentieth assessment district of said city; the twenty-first ward of said city as laid out, shall constitute the twenty-first assessment district of said city; and the twenty-second ward as laid out, shall constitute the twenty-second assessment district of said city. Baltimore county shall be divided into thirteen assessment districts, and each of the thirteen election districts as now laid out, shall constitute an assessment district. Calvert county shall constitute one assessment district. Caroline county shall constitute one assessment district, for which there shall be appointed three assessors at large. Carroll county shall be divided into four assessment districts; the first shall be composed of the first, second, tenth and twelfth districts of said county; the second shall be composed of the third, seventh and eleventh districts of said county; the third shall be composed of the fourth, sixth and eighth districts of said county, and the fourth shall be composed of the fifth, ninth and thirteenth districts of said county. Cecil county shall constitute one assessment district, for which there shall be appointed two assessors at large, and also one assessor for each