

Treasury Department, Comptroller's Office, to wit:

I hereby certify, that the foregoing is a true copy taken from the original on file in this office.

[SEAL.] In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal this 20th day of January, 1892.

MARION DEK. SMITH,
Comptroller.

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

ORDERS.

Mr. Evans presented the following:

Ordered, That the Public Printer be directed to furnish the Postmaster of the Senate the addresses of the newspapers of the State to which he has been ordered to send copies of the daily journal, printed on gummed paper, so as to be readily separated, for that purpose.

Also,

Ordered by the Senate, That the Public Printer print and have bound 1,000 copies of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, in which shall be inserted all amendments to the same, together with marginal reference to all the opinions of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, construing said Constitution and amendments; that the Constitution so printed and bound shall be in size, binding, type, quality of paper, like the Constitution printed and published by John Murphy & Co. in the year 1867, copies of which are now in the State Library; that the cost of printing and binding said Constitution in manner and form as above described, shall not exceed $465.00.

And be it further ordered, That the Public Printer shall submit the proof of said Constitution with amendments inserted as aforesaid, and marginal references, to the Committee on Judicial Proceedings of the Senate, whose duty it shall be to examine, revise and correct the same; and said Committee shall also furnish the Public Printer with the marginal references aforesaid. Upon the completion of said work as aforesaid, the Public Printer shall submit