192 of chapter 180 of the Acts of 1890, of the General Assembly of Maryland, and the purchasers and holders of said bonds shall have the right to rely and insist upon said security pledged to them until the said bonds are fully paid.

"Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That the limitation of the bonded indebtedness of the city of Havre-de-Grace, as contained in section 175 A of the city charter, as enacted by chapter 127 of the Acts of 1902, of the General Assembly of Maryland, shall not be construed so as to interfere with, restrict, or impair the power of the Mayor and City Council of Havre-de-Grace, to issue the bonds authorized by this Act.

"Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That Clarence C. Pusey, Mayor ex-officio; Murray Vandiver, Stephen J. Seneca, Hollis Courtney, Junior, Joseph W. Chamberlaine, Isaac Hecht and Michael H. Fahey, be and they are hereby constituted a commission to be known as the 'Havre-de-Grace Sewer Commission,' with sole power to construct or contract for the construction of a general system of sewerage in said city, and when completed the duties of said sewer commission will end. The said commission shall have full powers to organize by electing one of their number president, and shall elect a secretary who shall keep the minutes of the meetings and an accurate account of the expenditures of said commission. They shall have the power to engage the services of a qualified engineer to plan and supervise the construction of said sewers, and they shall annually report to the Mayor the expenditures and progress made by said commission, which shall be published with the Mayor's message. If the fund provided by the sale of bonds issued under this Act shall become exhausted before the completion of the system of sewers to be planned by the said sewer commission, then it shall be the duty of the Mayor and City Council to make, and they are hereby authorized to make a further issue of bonds sufficient to complete the said work, and no other, in the same manner and under the same conditions, and with the same pledges and guarantees as is hereinbefore provided for the issue of bonds; provided however,
