

printing of the session of 1904, under the provisions of Article 78, of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland. I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

THOMAS PARRAN,

Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of Maryland:

In compliance with the requirements of Section 4, of Article 78, of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland I beg leave respectfully to report, that by virtue of the authority vested in me, as Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, by the provisions of the aforesaid Article 78 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, I did insert the following advertisement for proposals for the State printing for ten successive days, beginning on the 25th day of August, 1903, in "The Sun," "The Baltimore American," and "Journal Company of Baltimore City," three daily newspapers published in the City of Baltimore, and for three successive weeks, prior to the 25th day of September, 1903, in "The Advertizer" and "The Examiner," two weekly newspaders published in the city of Annapolis, to-wit:

PROPOSALS FOR THE STATE PRINTING.

The undersigned, in pursuance of Article 78, of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, will receive sealed proposals at the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, in the city of Annapolis, on or before Friday, the 25th day of September, 1903, for the printing of the General Assembly of Maryland, at the ensuing Session of 1904, of the following as prescribed in said Article 78, of said Code of Public General Laws of Maryland:

"Four thousand copies of the Governor's Message in English; five hundred copies of the Governor's Message in German; three thousand copies of the reports of the Comptroller of the Treasury; one thousand copies of the Reports of the State Treasurer; one thousand copies of the Reports of the Adjutant-General; two thousand copies of the School Reports; one thous-
