

BY THE SENATE.

April 4th, 1904.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We propose with the concurrence of your Honorable Body that both Houses of the General Assembly adjourn sine die tonight at 12 o'clock, midnight.

By order,

ROBERT MOSS,

Secretary.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the House of Delegates.

At 10.45 p. m.

Mr. Gill being in the Chair.

Mr. Perkins, moved that the regular proceedings of the Senate be temporarily suspended, so as to allow the token of esteem to be presented to the President of the Senate thereof.

Thereupon,

The business was suspended, and

Mr. Robinson, on behalf of the Senators, presented to the President their handsome gift of a solid silver punch bowl.

Remarks were also made by Senators Dixon, Perkins, Lewis and McCullough.

The President feeling responded, and accepted the gift.

Afterwards, to-wit; during the said suspension of business,

Mr. Moss, on behalf of the officers and employees of the Senate presented to the President of the Senate, the testimonial of their respect and esteem, being a solid silver pitcher and waiter.

The President feeling responded, in his acceptance of this beautiful gift.

Whereupon,

At 11.05 p. m.

The Senate resumed business.
