Said bill was then sent to the House of Delegates.

NOTE.

Senate bill, File No. 402,

Runs through the Journal in an almost endless chain, manifestly occasioned by two distinct and separate bills conveying the same subject matter, having been introduced on different days and both having been given the same file number, and both passing through the first, second and third readings, successively (and successfully); both having been sent to the House of Delegates and from there returned as having passed by yeas and nays.

This note is made to avoid any confusion in the premises, and to prevent error in the indexing of the Journal.

Mr. Perkins from the Joint Committee appointed to wait upon the Governor, reported.

That said Committee had waited upon the Executive and that he had no further communication to submit to the General Assembly.

At 12 o'clock, midnight, the President addressed the Senate as follows:
