

in the city of Annapolis, in the presence of such bidders and other persons as may choose to attend, when the contract for said printing will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, who shall have filed with his bid a satisfactory bond. No bid will be considered unless accompanied by such bond.

Persons making proposals are referred to the aforesaid Article 78 of said Code of Public General Laws for more specific information as to what will be required of bidders, and the manner in which the work shall be done and paid for.

Parties desiring to bid for the printing can obtain a blank form of bond by applying to the undersigned.

Bidders will endorse on the back of the envelope "Proposals for State Printing."

THOMAS PARRAN,

Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

At the hour designate in the foregoing advertisement, on the said 25th day of September, 1903, I had received eight sealed proposals, (and one blank) for the aforesaid printing, each being accompanied by a good and sufficient bond for thirty thousand dollars, as prescribed in the said advertisement, at which said hour on the day aforesaid, I proceeded to open said bids in the presence of the bidders or their agents, and of such of the public as chose to attend; and it appearing that Wm. J. C. Dulany Co., of Baltimore, were the lowest responsible bidders, I thereupon awarded to them the contract for said printing at the price set out in their bid, to wit: The sum of twenty-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety dollars ($29,990.00). I then entered into the following contract with the said Wm. J. C. Dulany Co., which contract and the bond and bid of the said Wm. J. C. Dulany Co. are filed and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland:

CONTRACT FOR STATE PRINTING.

Articles of agreement, made and concluded this twenty fifth day of September, nineteen hundred and three, by and between Thomas Parran, Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland; of the first part, and
