INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Gill,

A bill entitled "An Act declaring sundry days in February, 1904, to be legal holidays, and providing that Acts and things required to be performed on any of such days, may be performed at a later day."

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Gill moved to suspend the rules and place the bill upon its second reading, (without reference to a committee).

Which motion prevailed, and

The roll was called, (two-thirds of the Senators voting in the affirmative) and the rules were suspended by yeas and nays as follows:
