The proposals of the other bidders for the said printing are also hereunto annexed as part of this report, as follows:

BALTIMORE, Sept. 22d, 1903.

Hon. Thomas Parran,

Clerk Court of Appeals, Annapolis, Md.

SIR:—We will do the work known as the "State Printing," as enumerated in the accompanying advertisement, in a good and workmanlike manner, for the sum of $31,000. We offer the American Bonding and Trust Company as surety if the contract is awarded us.

Respectfully,

THOMAS & EVANS.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25, '03.

Hon. Thomas Parran,

Clerk of Court of Appeals, Annapolis, Md.

Our bid for the printing, as per your advertisement, is thirty thousand dollars ($30,000.)

KOHN & POLLOCK.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 24, 1903.

Thomas Parran,

Clerk Court of Appeals of Maryland,

Annapolis, Md.

DEAR SIR:—We propose to execute the printing of the General Assembly of Maryland at the ensuing session of 1904, as prescribed in Article 78, of Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, for the sum of thirty-one thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars.

We enclose bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of $30,000.00, conditioned for the due, prompt and faithful compliance of the contract, if awarded to us.

Attached you will also find copy of your advertisement, calling for sealed proposals for same.

Yours truly,

GUGGENHEIMER, WEIL & CO.
