

1902-1903.
Balance September 30, 1902 ...	$ 8,096 20
General Annual Appropriation	12,100 00
Appropriation under chapter 259, 1896.....	2,000 00
Refund of expenses in extradition case of M. Beckenbaugh, paid by parties interested.....	41 00
	$22,237 20

Expended:

Salaries.....	$ 5,945 01
Extradition.....	1,397 51
Office Supplies.....	886 75
Telegraph and Telephone.....	463 66
Express.....	118 78
Advertising.....	719 96
Miscellaneous expenses.....	698 71
Examining accounts.....	300 00
Uniforms for employees.....	124 00
Repairs.....	39 50
Governor's expenses....	1,635 47
Printing.....	95 50
	$12,424 85
Balance September 30, 1903.....	$ 9,812 35

PARDONS.

Since my last message to the General Assembly three hundred and fifty-three applications for pardons have been filed, and one hundred and fifty granted. Of this number sixty-five were undergoing punishment for trivial offenses, such as unlawfully riding on cars, simple assault and other misdemeanors, and were fined or else imprisoned for a short time only. Two pardons were granted where application was made under former administrations. Three nolle prosequi have