

in the same manner and to the same extent as other county roads and no further, and whenever the Road Directors shall deem it expedient that examiners should be appointed to view grounds for the purpose of opening, altering or closing a road, they shall appoint three persons as examiners, who shall be freeholders in the county and not interested in or holding land through which the road is proposed to be opened, altered or closed; but the appointment of the examiners shall not prevent the Road Directors from contracting with the owner or owners as above provided, or said Road Directors may proceed to condemn the lands that may be necessary for the laying out of new public roads or for altering of existing public roads under the provisions of section 248 to 253, both inclusive, of Article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws, title 'Corporations,' and any and all amendments thereto.

"216 L. The examiners appointed under the preceding section, before they proceed to act as such, shall take an oath to execute the trust reposed in them, faithfully and without favor, affection or partiality; which oath shall be endorsed on the order of appointment. Said examiners, or a majority of them, shall give notice of the time and place of meeting, by publishing the same, once a week for two successive weeks, in some newspaper or newspapers, published in Allegany county, and by causing a copy of the same to be delivered to the owner or owners, through or along whose property the proposed road is to pass, or be publicly posted on such property in case the owner cannot be found, at least five days before the day of meeting, and in case the owner be an infant or non compos mentis, then a copy of said notice shall be left with a parent or guardian of said infant, or with the committee or person having charge of the person alleged to be non compos mentis; and the time appointed, the examiners, or a majority of them shall meet on the premises and proceed to examine and determine whether the public convenience requires that the road should be opened, altered or closed, as the case may be; but they shall have power to adjourn from time to time. If the application be
