

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

11

CHAPTER 13.

Dec Ses 1826.

An act to authorise John M'Tavish to act as one of the executors to Charles Carroll of Carrollton.

Passed Jan. 16, 1826.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Charles Carroll, of Carrollton be, and he is hereby authorized to make and appoint John M'Tavish one of the executors to his last will and testament, and that the said John M'Tavish be, and he is hereby authorized and empowered under such appointment to act as one of the executors to said Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and to have and possess all the rights and authorities of an executor, on his complying with the conditions imposed by law upon other executors, in the same manner as if he were a citizen of the United States.

Authority granted.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be void and of no effect, unless there be a citizen or citizens of the United States appointed co-executor or co-executors with the said John M'Tavish, to the said last will.

Condition.

CHAPTER 14.

An act to confirm an act entitled, An act to alter and abolish so much of the Constitution and form of Government of the State of Maryland, as relates to the oath to be taken by the Senators and Delegates previous to the election of Governor and Council.

Passed Jan 16, 1826.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-four, entitled, an act to alter and abolish so much of the constitution and form of government of the state of Maryland, as relates to the oath to be taken by the senators and delegates previous to the election of governor and council, chapter one hundred and twenty-nine, be, and the same is hereby confirmed.

Confirmation.

CHAPTER 15.

An act to appoint Trustees for the sale of the property therein mentioned, being the real estate of the late Samuel Stevenson, deceased.

Passed Jan 21, 1826.

Trustees sale.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Basil D. Stevenson and Henry Stevenson, be, and they are hereby appointed trustees to make sale of the real estate whereof their father Samuel Stevenson died seized and possessed, lying and being in Baltimore county, in this state, in such parts, at such times, and on such terms, as they, the said trustees shall think most advantageous for all the parties concerned, subject nevertheless to the advice, approval and ratification of