CHAPTER 142.

An act for the establishment and support of public free schools in the first election district of Baltimore county.

Pas'd March 1, 1826.

WHEREAS, it has been justly represented by the inhabitants of the first election district of Baltimore county, to the legislature of Maryland, that a system of public free schools, which should be supported by a fair scale of taxation, and depend for its operation within said district upon the future decision of a majority of the voters at that time actually residing in such district, might prove highly beneficial to them; Therefore,

Preamble.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an election shall be held in the first election district of Baltimore county, on the first Monday in October next, and on the same day in every year thereafter, in which the citizens of the said district who are entitled to vote for delegates to the general assembly of Maryland, shall be entitled to vote for, and elect, five of the most discreet, sensible and virtuous citizens of said district; which persons so elected, shall be known by the name and style of the commissioners of public free schools of the first election district of Baltimore county.

Annual election of five commissioners of Free School.

2. And be it enacted, That the judges of elections who may hold the elections in the first election district of Baltimore county on the first Monday of October next, and on the first Monday of October in every year thereafter, shall in all respects conduct the elections of commissioners of public free schools of said district, in the same manner as in other elections, and

Time and manner of conducting the election.
