

JOSEPH KENT, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR

Dec Ses 1826. ber of ballots expressing dissent as well as assent, to the judge of the levy court of Baltimore county; and the said certificate and statement of the said ballots, shall thereupon be published by the judges aforesaid; and at the same time they shall issue their declaration, setting forth that this act is in force otherwise upon its appearing that said act was not adopted by a majority as aforesaid; this act shall be inoperative and void.

Levy to pay expenses.

10. And be it enacted, That all expenses and charges that may be incurred in, and by virtue of this act, by the levy court in executing the same, shall be levied and assessed in and upon the assessable property of said first election district, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 143.

Passed March 2, 1826. A supplement to an act entitled a further supplement to an act entitled an act empowering the Levy Court of Cecil county, at their discretion to levy a sum of money to build a bridge over Octorara creek, at or near Samuel Rowland's store, passed December session, 1824, chapter 6.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by the third section of the act to which this is a supplement, three commissioners are appointed for the purposes mentioned in said section: And whereas, Evan Lewis, one of the said commissioners has since the passage of said act, removed from this state, without having performed the duties therein required of him: Therefore,

Commissioner appointed.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Samuel Rowland of said county be, and he is hereby appointed a commissioner in the place of said Lewis, to do and discharge the services and duties by said third section imposed, and that he together with the other two commissioners therein named, or any two of them, shall have full power and authority to do, perform and discharge the several duties and services attached to their said commission.

CHAPTER 144.

Passed March 2, 1826. An act to authorise and empower the justices of the levy court of Saint Mary's county to fix and regulate the rates of public Inns

Levy court authorised to regulate Inns.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the justices of the levy court of Saint Mary's county, be, and they are hereby authorised, empowered, and directed, at their next meeting, and from time to time thereafter as in their judgment they may think fit, to establish and regulate the rates of all public inns and taverns in Saint Mary's county.

Repeal.

2. And be it enacted, That all laws repugnant to the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.