CHAPTER 147.

A supplement to an act entitled an act appointing commissioners for the regulation and improvement of the village of Hillsborough in Caroline county, passed at December session, 1824, chapter 21.

Passed March
2, 1826.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if any person or persons shall refuse or neglect to pay their taxes, fines or forfeitures charged against them by virtue of the act, to which this is a supplement, it shall and may be lawful for the commissioners of the said village to collect the same in the same manner, by their bailiff, that the county charges are now collected by the county collector.

Collection of taxes, fines,
&c.

2. And be it enacted, That all and every part of the original act to which this is a supplement, that is contrary to, or inconsistent with the provisions of this act be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Inconsistent
acts repealed.

CHAPTER 148.

An act for the relief of the heirs at law of Lawrence O'Neal, late of Montgomery county.

Passed March
2, 1826.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Scott, Lemox Martin, William Reid, Samuel Thomas, and John Hoyer, of Allegany county, or a majority of them heretofore appointed, by the county court of the county aforesaid, to make partition and allotment among the representatives of Lawrence O'Neal, late of Montgomery county, deceased, of the real estate, lying and being in Allegany county, to them descending from the said deceased, shall be and they are hereby authorised, agreeably to the division of the same, into four shares, made on the eleventh day of December, eighteen hundred and twenty-three, by the said Lemox Martin, William Reid and Samuel Thomas, to allot the same, as they might lawfully have done under the laws regulating descents, as if John O'Neal, and Henry O'Neal, children and heirs at law of the said Lawrence O'Neal were living at the time of such partition and allotment, that is to say, one share to Elenor Jameson, of Montgomery county, one share to Mary Ann O'Neal, of the said county, one share to the heirs of John O'Neal, and one share to the heirs of Henry O'Neal.

Division alithorised.
