CHAPTER 185.

An act to alter and change the name of George Stiles Dew, a minor of the City of Baltimore, to John Holland Barney.

Passed March 1, 1826.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the name of George Stiles Dew, a minor of the city of Baltimore, be, and is hereby changed and altered unto the name of John Holland Barney, and it shall and may be lawful for the said George Stiles Dew, at all times hereafter to be called and known by, and hold and use the name of John Holland Barney, and by that name to sue and be sued in any court of law or equity.

Name changed.

2. And be it enacted, That all securities, promises, contracts, assurances, deeds and lawful acts whatsoever hereafter to be made and done by the name of John Holland Barney, shall be of the same force and effect, and equally avail to all intents and purposes, as if the name of John Holland Barney had been the original, and proper name of the said George Stiles Dew.

*Acts confirmed.

CHAPTER 186.

An act to divorce Charles Warfield and Sarah his wife, of the City of Baltimore.

Passed Feb 16, 1826.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Charles Warfield and Sarah his wife, formerly Sarah Goddard of the city of Baltimore, be, and they are hereby divorced from bed, board and mutual cohabitation;

Divorce.

And whereas, the said Charles Warfield and Sarah Warfield having actually lived apart for nearly two years previous, did on or about the twenty-fifth day of January, eighteen hundred and twenty-six, enter into articles of separation, whereby the said Charles did agree to settle a sufficient maintenance upon the said Sarah Warfield, during her life, and in consideration thereof, she hath agreed to relinquish all her right and interest in his present or any future estate he may acquire, and the said Charles Warfield having in execution of the said articles, conveyed to John Goddard, in trust for the said Sarah, during her natural life, a certain house and lot on the south side of Baltimore street, in the city of Baltimore, Therefore;
