

3. And be it enacted, That the trustees aforesaid shall dispose of all products arising from the cultivation of said land over and above what may be necessary for the maintenance of the poor of said alms-house, and the amount of the money arising from such sale, or sales, shall annually on the first day of January in each and every year be returned on oath and paid over to the levy court of said county, to be applied for the benefit of said county.

Dec Set 1825
Proceeds of farm

4. And be it enacted, That the trustees aforesaid, and their successors in office, shall have full power, liberty and authority, to make and establish such bye-laws, orders and rules, for the relief, regulation and labor of the poor, and for the good government of the alms-house in said county, as to them shall from time to time appear most fit and requisite, all which shall be conformed to, and observed by the overseer and all under his control, or the control of said trustees, under the penalties therein contained: Provided always, that the said rules, bye-laws and orders, be in no way contrary to the laws of this state.

Make bye-laws

5. And be it enacted, That the trustees aforesaid, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority, at any time after having made arrangements for the accommodation of the poor as before prescribed, to sell and dispose of the present alms-house of said county, and lot of ground thereunto attached, and all its appertences, at public auction, or otherwise at their discretion for the best price which can be obtained, and at a proper time after the sale is so made, to make and execute a good and sufficient deed of bargain and sale to the purchaser or purchasers, in fee simple.

Sell present alms-house

6. And be it enacted, That the proceeds arising from the sale of the present alms-house and premises, shall be applied to the payment of the purchase money of the lands and premises, authorized in virtue of this law to be purchased.

Proceeds applied

7. And be it enacted, That all acts of assembly, heretofore passed for the relief and support of the poor of Kent county, contrary to, or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal

CHAPTER 192.

An act to confirm the proceedings of certain commissioners in Queen Anne's County.

Passed March 6, 1826.

WHEREAS, upon the application of John Turner the elder, now deceased, or of John Turner and Samuel R. Turner, to Queen Ann's county (court) for a commission to mark and bound certain lands in said county, a commission for that purpose was issued by mistake to four persons, namely, Robert Stevens, George Palmer, William Thomas, and William Gilbert, instead

Preamble