

JOSEPH KENT, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

Dec 5th 1828
1828

by this charter; and the said bye-laws from time to time to alter, change or repeal: Provided, That no bye-law shall be made contrary to the provisions of this charter, or the constitution and laws of this state, or of the state of Pennsylvania.

Subscription
on part of the state; conditions

7. And be it enacted, That whenever the governor and council, for the time being, shall be satisfied, that there hath been actually subscribed by bona fide and competent subscribers, such sum, as together with the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, is sufficient to make the said canal, in pursuance of the provisions of the twenty-first section of the act "for the promotion of internal improvement," and of the dimensions set forth in the report of the commissioners upon the practicability and expense of a canal from the Susquehannah to the city of Baltimore, and upon the certificate of the board of public works that the said canal is practicable; then the treasurer of the Western Shore shall be, and he is hereby authorized and required to subscribe on behalf of this state for five thousand shares in the capital stock of the said Susquehannah and Patapsco Canal Company,

Connections
with said ca-
anal.

8. And be it enacted, That the said president and directors, in constructing the said canal, shall, and they are hereby required to provide for a communication with the said canal, by locks or otherwise, from the river Susquehannah, at some point between the head of tide and Havre-de-Grace, the mouth of the Conestogo, and the town of Columbia, and also at any other point they may deem conducive to the interests of said company, and beneficial to the trade of the river.

Subscription
of stock of Susquehanna
canal company

9. And be it enacted, That the proprietors of the Susquehannah Canal, incorporated by the act entitled "an act for making the river Susquehannah navigable from the line of the state to tide water," and the supplements thereto, be and they are hereby authorised to subscribe for fifteen hundred shares of the capital stock of the said Susquehannah and Patapsco Canal Company; the same to be paid by a full conveyance of their right, title, interest and estate, to, and in the said Susquehannah Canal, to the president and directors of the said Susquehannah and Patapsco Canal Company, hereby created; to be made whenever the canal contemplated by this act shall have been completed from York Haven to tide water; and thereupon all the rights, interests, claims, property, and estate, together with the privileges and chartered immunities of the said Susquehannah Canal Company, shall be vested in the said president and directors of the said Susquehannah and Patapsco Canal Company, in as full and ample a manner, as the same are now held, enjoyed, and possessed by the said Susquehannah Canal Company, by virtue of the original act of incorporation and supplements thereto.

Assent of Pennsylvania
required

10. And be it enacted, That the subscription herein authorised on the part of this state, shall not be made until the state of Pennsylvania shall assent to and confirm this charter, so that the same may have full effect and operation within the limits of that state.