CHAPTER 31.

Passed Jan.
27, 1826.

An act for the relief of Jacob Ayres, of the City of Baltimore.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jacob Ayres, of the city of Baltimore, be, and he is hereby authorised to prosecute a petition for the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state before the commissioners of insolvent debtors for the city and county of Baltimore, notwithstanding the unfavorable report made by them upon his former petition.

2. And be it enacted, That upon such petition being filed before the said commissioners, they shall proceed according to the rules and requisitions of the insolvent laws of this state; and if it shall appear to them that the said Jacob Ayres does not at the time of such petition, and the proceedings thereon, retain any property or estate of any kind whatsoever, except what is allowed by the insolvent laws of this state; and that he does not then retain or receive to himself or his family, any interest in any property or estate whatsoever heretofore belonging to him, except as above excepted; then, and in that
