

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

And be it enacted, That before proceeding to any drawing of any of the said lotteries, the said commissioners shall cover and inclose under their hands and seals, all the tickets remaining in bank, being the property of the state, and deliver the same to the treasurer of the Western Shore, or deposit the same, inclosed and sealed as aforesaid, in the branch bank of the United States, or other bank, that may have been approved as aforesaid, the said commissioners retaining a list of the numbers of the said tickets, and transmitting a copy of the said list to the said treasurer.

Dec Ses 1825.
Unsold tickets—how disposed before drawing.

5. And be it enacted, That all acts, or parts of acts, not inconsistent with this act are reserved, and all acts and parts of acts which are repugnant thereto, are repealed, abrogated and annulled by this act.

Repeal.

CHAPTER 211.

An act appointing commissioners for the town of Oxford in Talbot county.

Passed March 9, 1826.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Robert Banning, James L. Chamberlaine and John Willis, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to open, locate and mark the public squares, streets, lanes, and alleys in the town of Oxford in Talbot county, according to the original location made under the provisions of an act of the General Assembly, passed at a session held at the city of Saint Mary's in September, one thousand six hundred and ninety-four, and a supplement thereto passed at a session of the general assembly held in the city of St. Mary's in May, sixteen hundred and ninety-five; and such public squares, streets, lanes and alleys, when so opened and located, shall remain open for public use and as public highways, and any person obstructing or encroaching on the same, shall be punished as persons obstructing or encroaching on public highways.

Commissioners to locate streets, &c.

2. And be it enacted, That in case of the death, resignation or refusal to serve of any one of the above named commissioners the other two shall proceed to fill the vacancy so happening.

Vacancies.

CHAPTER 212.

An act for the relief of Mary Whitehill, of Frederick county.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the interest, authority, power and control of John Whitehill in over and to the person and property of Mary Whitehill, his wife, shall henceforth cease and determine, and the said John

Passed March 9, 1826.
Authority and claim annulled.