

JOSEPH KENT, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

Dec Ses 1828

as the case may be, on or before the first day of May next, within one month thereafter, the amount for which they are severally liable, they shall not be chargeable with any interest on the sums now due.

Collector of county tax to collect revenue; bond.

3. And be it enacted, That hereafter the collector of the county taxes, shall in all cases be the collector of the revenue for the support of government, and shall give bond and security accordingly.

In case of the neglect of the collector to bond, the sheriff shall collect both state and county tax; his bond.

4. And be it enacted, That if any such collector shall not give such bond as is required by law, within twenty day after his appointment, the duty to be performed by such collector both for the collection of the state and county taxes, shall devolve upon the sheriff of the county where such appointment of a collector has been made; and he shall within ten day, being notified of such appointment, give such bonds as is required to be given by collectors, under the penalty of five hundred dollars for such neglect.

Montgomery county:

5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriff of Montgomery county to collect the revenue for the support of government, ordered to be levied by the act aforesaid; and he shall be allowed until the first day of September next to complete his collection, and no interest shall be chargeable to him; provided he shall pay into the treasury within thirty days thereafter, the sum ordered to be levied upon Montgomery county, by the act aforesaid.

CHAPTER 217.

Passed March 9, 1826

An act for the benefit of the infant children of Benjamin B. Wroth, late of Kent county, deceased.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly by the petition of Peregrine Wroth, guardian to Editha G. Wroth and Mary Wroth, guardian to Benjamin B. Wroth, and William G. Wroth, infant children of Benjamin B. Wroth late of Kent county, deceased; that said Benjamin B. Wroth, died seized and possessed of a certain tract or parcel of wood or timber land, lying and being in Kent county aforesaid, containing about forty-six acres; that said Benjamin B. Wroth by his last will and testament directed, said tract or parcel of wood land to be divided into two equal parts, one of which he devised to his daughter Editha G. Wroth, the other to his two sons, Benjamin B. Wroth and William G. Wroth.

And whereas, the said Editha G. Wroth, Benjamin B. Wroth and William G. Wroth, are all minors, and therefore unable to obtain a division of said wood land without the aid of the legislature; and in as much as it is important to the interest of said minors, that a division of said tract or parcel of woodland should be made and clearly and distinctly marked and bounded: Therefore,
