

JOS. KENT, ESQ. GOVERNOR.

Dec Ses 1825. any suit, on a bill of exchange, promissary note or other negotiable instrument, shall be reversed or in any way set aside on an appeal or writ of error; because the endorsement or endorsements of such bill of exchange, promissary note or other negotiable instrument may be in blank; and that such judgment shall be as good and valid to every intent and purpose as if such endorsement or endorsements were properly filled up,

CHAPTER 36.

Passed Jan. 18, 1826. An Act to compensate the Trustees of the Poor of Caroline county, for their services.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is right and proper, that those who dedicate their time and services to the public interest, should receive reasonable compensation therefor: And whereas, It is represented to this General Assembly, that the trustees of the poor of Caroline county, have for many years, performed arduous and faithful services to their county, in executing the trusts confided to them, without any compensation and subject at the same time to heavy penalties for a neglect of duty: Therefore,

$1 per day.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the trustees of the poor, of Caroline county, shall, each of them, be entitled to receive one dollar per day, for every day they shall necessarily attend at the poor or alms-house, in said county, in performing the duties imposed on them by law.

CHAPTER 37.

Passed Jan. 20, 1826.
Levy $30

An Act for the relief of Samuel Lee, of Harford county.

Proviso

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Harford county, be, and they are hereby authorised and required to levy and assess annually, on the assessable property of said county, the sum of thirty dollars for the support and maintenance of Samuel Lee, of said county, and his helpless family, to be collected by the collector for the district in which he may reside, and by him paid over to such person as the said Samuel Lee shall name, and the levy court aforesaid approve of: Provided, That if at any time hereafter the situation of the said Samuel Lee, shall become such as to enable him to procure a subsistence without such relief as is hereinbefore provided for him, then and in that case the said allowance shall cease.