Dec Ses 1843

Resolved, That the other copies remain in the council chamber, subject to the future disposition of the legislature.

No. 79.

Whereas it appears by the provisions of an act, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty, chapter one hundred and thirty-one, that the president and directors of Chester Bridge Company, or the managers named in an act of December session eighteen hundred and nineteen, chapter one hundred and fifty-three, are obligated to the state of Maryland in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, to make the draw of said bridge forty feet wide, out of the clear proceeds of the lottery, mentioned in the two acts above mentioned within twelve months after the completion of said lottery; and whereas it now appears that the time thus allowed, may not be sufficient for the fulfilment of said obligation in a proper manner; I therefore,

No. 81.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the late deputation, consisting of Messrs Ezekiel F. Chambers, Archibald Lee, and Robert H. Goldsborough, appointed by this general assembly to visit the seats of government of the states of Delaware, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, for the purpose of negotiating or making some arrangement with those states, of a good and sufficient system, for the more effectual recovery of fugitives from labour that escape from the state of Maryland, and fly to or through those states, have leave to defer their report until they shall hear of the final determination of the senate of Pennsylvania, upon the bill relating to the subject of their mis-
