CHAPTER 47.

Passed Jan.
30, 1826.

An act to alter and change the divisional line between the first and second election districts in Caroline county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it would add to the convenience of certain voters now residing in the second election district in Caroline county, that the same should be changed; Therefore,

Line designated.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in lieu of the division lines heretofore established by law as the divisional lines between the first and second election districts in Caroline county, on the east side of Choptank river, the following shall be, and are hereby established the divisional lines between the said districts, viz. Beginning on the east side of Choptank river, at the mouth of Frampton's mill branch, thence running up said branch, and binding therewith, until it comes to a notable place on said branch, commonly called and known by the name of the Raccoon Trapp, thence by a straight line to a methodist meeting house, commonly called Lee's meeting
