

JOS. KENT, ESQ. GOVERNOR.

Dec Ses 1825.

more; and any number of stockholders, not less than one hundred, who together shall be proprietors of twelve hundred shares, may at any time apply to the president and directors, to call a general meeting of the stockholders, for any purpose relative to the affairs of the institution; and if the president and directors refuse to call such meeting, the said number of stockholders, proprietors of not less than twelve hundred shares, shall have power to call a general meeting of the stockholders, giving at least two weeks notice in the said newspapers printed in the city of Baltimore, specifying in such notice the object of the meeting.

Omission to elect officers obviated.

25. And be it enacted, That should it so happen from any cause whatsoever, that the annual election of directors should not take place in any year, on the day hereinbefore mentioned for that purpose, this corporation shall not for that reason be dissolved, but such election may be lawfully held on such convenient day thereafter, as may for that purpose be fixed on, by the president and directors, they causing ten days public notice thereof to be given in one or more of the newspapers printed in the city of Baltimore.

Limited to 1846.

26. And be it enacted, That this act shall continue and be in force until the year eighteen hundred and forty-six and until the end of the next, session of assembly which shall take place thereafter.

CHAPTER 56.

Passed Feb 8, 1826.

Brigade of volunteers.

An Additional Supplement to the act entitled an act for the better regulation of the Militia in the City of Baltimore.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a light brigade of uniformed volunteers, shall be and is hereby formed with the usual field and other officers; and the said brigade shall be called, the First Light Brigade of Maryland Volunteers, and shall be attached to, and form a part of the third division.

Composed of

2. And be it enacted, That the said brigade shall consist of one regiment of riflemen, one regiment of light infantry, and one regiment of cavalry.

Riflemen.

3. And be it enacted, That the "First Regiment of Riflemen" be, and the same form a part of the said regiment of riflemen, and that it be called by the same name and attached to the said brigade.

Infantry.

4. And be it enacted, That the companies known by the names of the First Baltimore Light Infantry—Independent Company—Mechanical Volunteers—Baltimore United Volunteers—Columbian Volunteers—Independent Volunteers—Washington Guards—Independent Blues—and La Fayette Cadets, be, and the same form a part of the said regiment of light infantry, and that it be called, the Fifth Regiment of Volunteer Infantry, with the usual field and other officers and attached to the said brigade.