

JOS. KENT, ESQ. GOVERNOR.

Dec Ses 1825. Frederick Free School, and to the pastor of St. John's Church, in Fredericktown for the use of the Frederick Benevolent Female School, taking such security from the president and directors and pastor, as the said levy court may deem necessary, for the faithful application of whatever sum or sums of money may be paid to them under this act.

Shall annually draw from treasury and pay. 2. And be it enacted, That the levy court of Frederick county shall on or before the first day of July next, draw from the treasury of the Western Shore, the whole amount of whatever school fund may then be remaining in said treasury to the credit and for the use of Frederick county, (excepting appropriations to academies) and shall annually thereafter draw from the said treasury the amount of any fund which has been, or may hereafter be appropriated as a school fund for said county (excepting as before excepted) and when so received, the portion to which the citizens of Fredericktown may be entitled, shall be distributed in equal shares to the president and directors of the said Frederick Free School, and to the pastor of Saint John's church, or his successor, under the restrictions and limitations herein before mentioned.

Fifty pupils. 3. And be it enacted, That if at any time hereafter, either of the schools before mentioned, shall have a less number than fifty pupils, for the term of six months in succession, then the said donation shall cease and determine so far as regards such school; and the amount thereof shall be applied to any other free school under the direction of the levy court.

Disposition of the balance. 4. And be it enacted, That that portion of the Frederick County School Fund, not directed by this act to be distributed, shall be placed at interest by the levy court of said county, the said court taking good and sufficient security for the payment of the said fund and interest, or distributed in equitable shares in the several school districts of said county, which may hereafter be laid off (excepting the district embracing Frederick Town,) the levy court taking care to receive good and sufficient security for the faithful application of all such funds to the purposes of free education.

Treasurer directed 5. And be it enacted, That the treasurer of the Western Shore be, and he is hereby required to pay to the order of the levy court of Frederick county, the several sums of money directed by this act, to be drawn for, by the said levy court.
