

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

sess the real and personal property within said county, agreeably to the provisions of an act passed at November session eighteen hundred and twelve, entitled an act for the valuation of real and personal property in the several counties of this state.

Dec Ses 1826

2. And be it enacted, That the following persons shall be and they are hereby appointed commissioners of the tax for Talbot county, Samuel T. Kennard, Alexander B. Harrison, Freeborn Banning, Joseph Turner and Nicholas Martin, who are hereby authorised and empowered to carry into full effect and operation all the provisions of this act, as well as the aforesaid act of eighteen hundred and twelve, entitled an act for the valuation of real and personal property in the several counties of this state.

Commissioners of tax powers.

CHAPTER 10.

An act to regulate the meetings of the Trustees of the Poor of Dorchester County.

Passed Jan 17, 1826.
Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is provided by the ninth section of a supplementary act, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and twelve, chapter twelve, that the trustees for the poor of Dorchester county, should meet four times a year, to wit: the second Monday in June, October, January and April, and whereas on experience the aforesaid days have been found inconvenient for as much, as they interfere with the public days of the county aforesaid: Therefore.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the trustees of the poor, for Dorchester county, to meet on the second Thursday in January, April, June and October, and as much oftener as they may deem proper for the advantage of the institution over which they preside.

Time of meetings.

2. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the ninth section of the law, passed as aforesaid, which are repugnant to the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed and made void.

Repeal.

CHAPTER 11.

An act for the relief of Elizabeth Winters of Frederick county.

Passed Jan 18, 1826.

Sec. 1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the interest, authority, power and control of John Winters, in, over and to the person and property of Elizabeth Winters, his wife, shall henceforth cease and determine; and the said John Winters, shall not be liable for any debts hereafter contracted by the said Elizabeth Winters, and the said Elizabeth

Authority and accountability annulled.