

JOSEPH KENT, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

Dec 25 1825.

authorised and empowered at their next meeting, and annually thereafter, so long as they may deem the same right and proper to assess and levy on the assessable property of Prince George's county, a sum of money not exceeding forty dollars, to be collected as other county charges are, and paid over to some person resident of the said county to be appointed by the said court to receive it, who shall from time to time as he may think it necessary apply the said sum of money so received to the support and maintenance of the said James Mobly and wife.

CHAPTER 117.

An act for the amendment of the Law.

Passed Feb
16, 1826.
Court of appeals restricted.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in no case wherein a judgment may hereafter be rendered in any county court, and which may be removed to the court of appeals, by appeal or writ of error, shall the appellant or plaintiff in error, or the appellee or defendant in error, be permitted to urge or insist upon any point or question which shall not appear by the record to have been raised or made in the county court, and upon which that court may have rendered judgment; and the court of appeals shall not reverse or affirm any such judgment on any point or question which shall not appear to have been presented to the county court, and upon which that court may have rendered judgment

As to accounts

3. And be it enacted, That on an appeal to the court of appeals, from a decree of the court of chancery or any county court acting as a court of equity, in which an account or accounts may have been stated and reported to such court by its discretion, the appellant shall not be permitted to urge or insist upon any exception to any account so reported, unless it shall appear by the record that such exception was taken or made in the court from whose decree such appeal shall be made; and the court of appeals shall not reverse any decree or any exception which shall not appear to have been taken or made as aforesaid, in the court from whose decree the appeal may be made.

CHAPTER 118.

An act for the relief of Solomon Etting, of the city of Baltimore.

Passed Feb
26, 1826.
Relief granted.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever it shall be necessary to open Pine street, in the city of Baltimore, which by the commissioners appointed under an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen, chapter one hundred and forty eight, was located through