

lating to the inspection of bark in the city of Baltimore, as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take in force effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 101.

AN ACT amendatory of the act entitled, an act regulating joint fences in Queen Anne's and Talbot counties. Passed April 13, 1853.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if one of the parties interested in a division fence, after giving the notice and obtaining the authority of a justice of the peace, according to the provisions of the second section of the act to which this is a supplement, shall proceed to make or repair such fence, he, she or they, so doing, shall, in addition to the remedy provided in the said section, have a lien on the adjacent land or farm held by the person or persons who shall have refused or delayed to make or repair said fence, so as to secure the reimbursement of the cost and expenses of such making or repairing, in the event of any transfer of said land; Provided always, that proceedings to enforce such lien, be commenced by the party, or his, her or their representatives, within two years next after such repair shall have been done. May have a lien on adjacent land. Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and immediately after its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 102.

AN ACT to provide for an increase of the number of Justices of the Peace, and of Constables for certain districts in Baltimore county. Passed April 12, 1853.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the number of justices of the peace to be hereafter elected for the first, third, ninth Number of justices increased.