

powered in their discretion to levy a sum of money at their next annual levy for the purpose of constructing a bridge over the Little Antietam; and whereas, the levy for said county was made before the publication of the laws, Therefore,

Time extended. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the time for carrying out the provisions of the act passed March eighteen hundred and fifty-two, chapter one hundred and fifteen, be, and the same is hereby extended until July eighteen hundred and fifty-six.

CHAPTER 106.

Passed April 12, 1853. AN ACT to amend the charter of the Doughoregan and Montgomery Plank or Turnpike Road Company, passed December session eighteen hundred and forty-nine, chapter four hundred and eighty-seven.

Names added. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the names of William Clarke and Joseph W. Tyson, be added to the commissioners named in the first section of the act to which this is amendatory.

Power and authority. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the company incorporated by said act in lieu of the powers to construct a continuous plank or turnpike road, granted by the sixth section of the act to which this is amendatory, shall have full power and authority to make and construct a continuous plank or turnpike road from some point between the fourteenth and seventeenth mile stones on the Baltimore and Frederick turnpike road to or through the Village of Triadelphia in Montgomery county, to intersect the road called or known as the Westminister road, at any point the commissioners named in the act to which this act is amendatory or a majority of them, or the president and directors of the Doughoregan and Montgomery plank or turnpike road may designate.

Powers to continue in force. SEC. 3 And be it enacted, That all the powers for the condemnation, occupancy and use of land and materials necessary for the construction of said road, contained in the act to which this is amendatory, shall continue in full force and be taken and considered as part of this act, with authority to apply the same in the con-