CHAPTER 128.

Passed April 6, 1853. AN ACT to create a new School district in Caroline county.

Additional school district

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there shall be an additional school district, composed of parts of the middle and lower election districts of Caroline county, comprised within the following bounds: beginning at the Choptank river, at the mouth of Robbins' creek, and to run up said creek to the old dam, then running with a straight line to the division line between Abraham Y. Collins and William M. A. Liden, then running with a straight line to Delahay Sparklin's mill dam, then running with a road leading from said Sparklin's mill dam to the forks of the road leading to Lockerman's mill, and to the town of Denton, then running with the county road to the division line between Mary Sipple and Bennett Tomlinson, then with said Tomlinson's line to the Choptank river, then with said river to the place of beginning; said school district to be known by school district number nine.

Trustees to be appointed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That county commissioners for Caroline county, shall appoint the usual number of trustees for said school district, and the said trustees shall be entitled to receive for use in the said district, a due proportion of the school fund belonging to the middle and lower election districts of Caroline county.

In force.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
