

of public works, two hundred dollars, being for his salary in the past year, the same not having been paid to him because no appropriation therefor was made. To William P. Pouder, one of the commissioners of public works, two hundred dollars, being for his salary in the past year, the same not having been paid to him because no appropriation therefor was made. To John R. Franklin, one of the commissioners of public works, two hundred dollars, being for his salary in the past year, the same not having been paid to him because no appropriation therefor was made. And to the Commissioners of Public Works, (each two hundred dollars.) To Sheriff and Messenger to the Court of Appeals, and to the Messenger to the court of Chancery, the sum of thirteen hundred dollars. To Anne Gill, administratrix of Richard W. Gill, for the State's subscription to the eighth volume, and for the State's subscription to the ninth volume of Gill's reports of the decisions of the court of Appeals of Maryland, two thousand dollars. To the legal representatives of the late reporter to the court of Appeals of Maryland, for the said late reporter's salary, five hundred dollars. To the legal representatives of the late Alexander C. Magruder, for the State's subscription to two hundred copies of the first volume, and for the State's subscription to two hundred copies of the second volume of Maryland reports, two thousand dollars. To the State's subscription to two hundred copies of the reports of the decisions of the court of Appeals, one thousand dollars. To the Maryland Penitentiary, for the payment of so much on account of the salaries of its officers, eight thousand dollars. To African colonization, ten thousand dollars. To the Adjutant General of the Maryland militia, five hundred dollars. To the armorer at Frederick, three hundred dollars. To the armorer at Easton, three hundred dollars. To the State's tobacco inspectors in Baltimore, including the salaries of Inspectors of tobacco and their clerks, and contingent expenses, twenty-one thousand dollars. To donations to colleges, academies and schools, twenty-one thousand four hundred dollars. To the payment of the several sums of money to be distributed amongst the counties according to law for the use of free schools including bonus from banks, dividends from bank stock standing to the credit of the school fund and so much of the tax on passengers on the Washington branch of the Baltimore and Ohio rail road, as has been substituted for the surplus revenue, sixty-three thousand five hundred and sixty-eight dollars and one cent. To the education of the indigent blind in addition to the fund already accumulated for